In case you need healthcare

You who are in Västerbotten and have a temporary residence permit have the right to receive care on the same terms as Swedish citizens. This also applies to you who are seeking asylum or who are staying in Sweden without a permit. For children and young people under the age of 20, care is free of charge.

1177 – a 24/7 service

On the website 1177.se you can read about diseases and symptoms and get tips on how to speed up your recovery.

For healthcare advice, phone +46 771-11 77 00. The nurses at Healthcare Guide 1177 serve as a guide to the healthcare system. Open around the clock.

Healthcare center

If you are ill, injured or need medicine, you should contact a healthcare centre (hälsocentral). It is your first port of call. Please phone and book an appointment before your visit. The healthcare center can also refer you to a specialist at the hospital if needed.

Emergency department

If you are seriously ill or have been gravely injured and need help urgently, you can seek help at the hospital emergency department (akutmottagning). Phone +46 771-11 77 00 if you are unsure of the severity of your condition and need an assessment.

112 – SOS Alarm

Phone 112 if somebody's life is in danger and you need help straight away.

Dental care

Contact the nearest Folktandvården dental surgery if you have urgent problems with your teeth. Please phone and book an appointment before your visit. If you have urgent problems and need advice during the evening, weekend or at night, phone telephone number 1177.

Interpretation to your language

If you have difficulty speaking or understanding Swedish, you may get help from an interpreter. It is free of charge. Tell the staff that you need an interpreter when you make an appointment.
